There are two versions that I've included here of the sheet along with one for filling out digitally. A huge thanks to the guys at the Cyberpunk 2020/Red Fans Discord Server that helped me create this sheet. More Information | History | This page does not exist. If you're interested in checking them out, please join the official discord here: You're Reading a Free Preview Page 2 is not shown in this preview. I also wanted to create a character sheet that felt more natural to other RPG players, such as Dungeons & Dragons players, to make the transition from their RPG to this one a bit more natural. More emphasis was placed on statistics and armor, less emphasis on lists. I couldn't have done it without them.
